Methodology

Annual online survey in its 23rd year

Fieldwork conducted: Nov 1 – Nov 28, 2022

28

Countries

32,000+

Respondents

1,150+/-

Respondents per country**

Argentina	Colombia	Ireland	Mexico	S. Korea	UAE
Australia	France	Italy	Nigeria	Spain	UK
Brazil	Germany	Japan	Saudi Arabia	*Sweden	U.S.
Canada	India	Kenya	Singapore	Thailand
China	Indonesia	Malaysia	S. Africa	The Netherlands

Russia, part of the Edelman Trust Barometer from 2007 to 2022, was not included in this wave

**The sample size varies by country from 1,082 to 1,500.

27-market global data margin of error: General population +/- 0.6 percentage points (n=31,171)

Country-specific data margin of error: General population +/- 2.5 to 3.0 percentage points (varies by country based on sample size, n=1,082 to n=1,500)

The data in this deck was collected before the U.S. financial events of March 2023

Global averages

These vary based on the number of countries surveyed each year:

GLOBAL 27

*To protect the stability of the global average, Sweden will not be included in the average until there are at least two years of recent data

GLOBAL 25 Excludes China and Thailand

The sensitive nature of the question prevented this data from being collected in these countries

Statistical significance

 Significant change

All indicated year-over-year significant changes were determined using a t-test set at a 99%+ confidence level

Four Pillars Impact Trust in the Financial Services Sector

Economic Anxieties

Economic optimism is collapsing around the world, with 24 of 28 countries seeing all-time lows in the number of people who think their families will be better off in five years. High concerns about inflation, retirement and the ability to pay bills.

Regulatory Realities

Business is under pressure to step into the void left by government. That is underscored even more strongly in the financial services world, where lack of transparency and lack of regulatory oversight can bring down institutions in a weekend.

Mass-Class Divide

The top quartile of income live in a different trust reality than those in the bottom quartile, with 20+ point gaps in Thailand, the United States, and Saudi Arabia. This polarization is showing up as diverging belief systems in the areas of ESG and DEI.

The Battle for Truth

A shared media environment has given way to echo chambers, making it harder to collaboratively solve problems. Media is not trusted, with especially low trust in social media, which can accelerate panic and fuel misinformation.

Building and Reinforcing Trust in Financial Services

Over-communicate

Put filings, public statements and other content on highly visible owned communications channels, swiftly and consistently. Make available information easy for stakeholders to understand and access. The speed of communications is key.

Establish Push Channels

Be prepared with communications tools and social media outlets that will reach your key stakeholders immediately. Go where they are. Use these channels to address negative speculation and misinformation immediately.

3

Action Pack the Narrative

Emphasize what you are doing to maintain or strengthen the companies position to signal confidence and provide data, where possible.

4

Use Trusted 3rd Parties to Lend Credibility

Use outside validators to help allay any concerns, amplify key messages, and demonstrate for stakeholders that there is support in the market. Leave no room for rumor or speculation.
